*Resolution No. 25-06
Adoption of State Law and Order Code*

WHEREAS, the Tribal Council of the Pueblo of Picuris, a federally recognized Indian tribe is the governing body of the said Pueblo; and

WHEREAS, the Pueblo of Picuris has from time immemorial exercised its inherent rights and power as a sovereign nation; and

WHEREAS, in the exercise of its inherent powers, the Pueblo of Picuris has exercised its right to adopt a Law and Order Code for the proper conduct and enforcement of rules and regulations within the exterior boundaries of the Picuris Pueblo Reservation/Grant; and

WHEREAS, such rules and regulations, as promulgated within the Law and Order code are enforceable against tribal members and non-tribal members alike; and

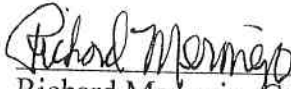

WHEREAS, the Picuris Pueblo Tribal Council has the sovereign authority to act, adopt, and enforce this Law and Order Code; and

WHEREAS, the Picuris Pueblo Tribal Council acknowledges that there are some actions not covered by the Picuris Pueblo Tribal Law and Order Code.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Picuris Pueblo Tribal Council hereby reaffirms the adoption of the New Mexico Criminal and Traffic Law Manual for use in instances not covered by the Picuris Pueblo Tribal Law and Order Code or by the Code of Federal Regulations.
